A RISK MANAGEMENT TALK BY GIA

MANAGING RISK EXPOSURES IN THE ECONOMIC DOWNTURN

AVOIDANCE OF COMPOUNDING INCREASED RISKS

An exclusive session featuring valuable insights and experiences from global risk professionals. If you are a manager or executive in today's economy, a sound understanding of risk management is a must. Managing risk is a major part of any leadership and performance mandate, yet few have been formally trained in the discipline. This specialized briefing costs nothing beyond a few hours of your time but will yield dividends for years to come. To look beyond your risk horizon, call 6221-8788 today or email ashiq.galiludin@gia.org.sg to reserve your seat.
